*Precious moments—meeting,
admiring, touching.*

We left with melodies of your eternal music.

You took our footprints along a golden path to the vanishing sun.

-James McLaughlin

The sun creeps upon 44th and Oak as 550 students huddle into Gerard.
The students are there with much to learn.
But there is more; Gerard beholds a sunshine atmosphere that is present and very alive, an atmosphere that can never be matched.

The smile of Gerard students is like the sunrise, it gives warmth and provides growth. It is always there even though a cloud, as an obstacle, is sometimes in the way, but the strength of it will always break through. As a smile will always blossom and grow inside.

And as the year ends and graduation is upon some, and yet others will return, but the sun will never set once you experience the smile and pride of Gerard's growth.

- Joe Larkin

SENIOR POLLS

1978-1979

On September 1, 1978, a series of polls began by the Senior class. On that date, there were different categories. Later, seniors voted to fill out the polls as to who they voted each person. After meeting the judges, the staff spent a very long time, including the votes. Finally, on September 1st, the results were in. For the first time, the yearbook staff was elected the outcome into the yearbook for the year. The year was the best of all, and most people. And, we put in the results of the 1978-1979 senior polls.

A New Year, A New Day, A New Life

Come to the Heart

*Close to the road is a secret path
Where dreams are stored away
And the road is at the end of A quiet day in the*

*And there, too, are the children
The laughter, the tears, the tears
The old times that never end
See through the mist of night*

*O, dearest, a star, deep in the
The heart, that is here
The secret of the heart
Is at the end of the heart*

*In the heart, a hidden part
That has a secret part
The heart is at the end of the heart
The heart is at the end of the heart*

1) Steve Schwan and Chris Rowlings collect their merchandise, Chris McShane, which they purchased at the Freshman auction. 2) Kelly McShane, Wendy Rossman, Cindy Tue and Mike Lane eat lunch under the shade of a tree on a hot day. 3) Exuberant seniors show spirit when announced that their class won first place for the homecoming float and also spirit week. 4) Freshmen guys in their gorgeous outfits display their unique physiques on Initiation Day. 5) Matt Malenfant makes an astounding catch during the Red and Green game. Red won 28-12. 6) Cami Cor gives a yell as Redcoat mascot.

The new look for guys in the formal line takes us back to the 1950's with the Gatsby look. That is the baggy pants with pleats made out of tweed. There is no set style for the casual look. The guys wear what they feel comfortable in.

Big tops and full skirts are what you'll find many girls wearing. The new thing is non-faded levis with spike heels.

To give you an idea of how the new look and new styles reflect our lives, the disco scene was brought about by the movie "Saturday Night Fever" which also introduced us to the disco music. The layered look was introduced by the movie "A Star is Born".

Clothing isn't the only thing included in fads in fashion. Cowboy hats, roll bars, KC lights, Papaya Park, and "wild and crazy guy" hats are just a few of the fads that separate Gerard from other schools.

6) Wearing candles in your hair is new this year and Vanessa Ayala, Melissa Clark, and Julie Toney show some of the latest hairstyles. 7) Stuck pins add to the fashion. 8) Saturday night on the town, Patty Gallagher, Renee Thomsen, Bill Miller and L... Dupuy show us their formal look. 9) Layered look when mom washes your hair. 10) Basketball Hoops, Apple Pie, and Aaron's Cherry Lu.

'We'll Always be Together'

Each year as the football season wraps up, the students and staff stand in front of the football field and sing the song "We'll Always be Together".

The song is a reminder to the students that they are all part of the same team and that they should always be together. The song is a reminder to the students that they are all part of the same team and that they should always be together.

night of the dance.

The movie "The Go-Go's" was the first movie that the students saw. The movie was a comedy and it was very funny. The students enjoyed it very much and they all liked it. The movie was a comedy and it was very funny. The students enjoyed it very much and they all liked it.

carried the saying, "Aztex and Tacos at the Post". The 1st place band was the Superior School band.

The football game was held at the Redoubt. The final score was 28-14, Green Bay 28, Superior 14.

The Homecoming court ladies were Julie Jones, Mary Ann Gallagher, Cindy Jane Quinn, Peggy Stevens, Linda Dore, Mary K. Kuster, Jan Louder, Steve Fries, Bill Miller, K. Miller, and Steve Seiden.

An Evening With Royalty

With Homecoming behind them, students got into the spooky spirit of things and got ready for some Halloween partying. Gerard had its annual costume contest where students and faculty alike had their chance to ham it up as they displayed their creativity by wearing their original costumes to school. Costumes ranged from scary to humorous with a lot of imagination either way, but unfortunately only two winners could be chosen. They were Renee Stallard's giant chicken and Dale Scuderi as Frankenstein.

Upperclassmen were given the opportunity to set their sights into the future as they attend the second annual Post High School Education Visitation Day. 53 different colleges, primarily of the Southwest, had representatives attend. Students were given the opportunity to collect pamphlets and discuss subjects concerning financial aid, school size, and admission procedures with the representatives.

With the onset of November, the guys crossed their fingers with anticipation as the girls picked their favorite honey to take to the Sadie Hawkins Hoedown. The Sophomores planned the dance, so it was a tremendous success.

The traditional Thanksgiving festivities had something to offer for everyone. Students got a chance to kick back and relax at the annual Powder Puff game and picnic. The Frosh/Junior team played a sensational game as they creamed the Sophomores and the Seniors.

The arrival of the annual Cheese Drive sparked the ambitions of the students as all four classes competed to see who could sell the most cheese. The Freshmen came out on top, selling $10,800 worth of cheese.

Efforts in Cheese Drive Show Pride

Miss Seniors Jim Rieck and Miss Joe Lund once again put the seal of the high school back in the front yard with the collection of the paper. It was a real day in September. Don't forget the camp of the school year.
At the Post High School Vacation day, Jack Lund, representing the school, took home the first prize. A few more members of the M. M. G. are participating in the Homecoming contest. 6) Cindy Jay collects information on Army life.

December was a hectic month of mixed emotions. While students were looking forward to the joys of the holiday season, they were bombarded with last minute homework to wrap up the semester and were faced with the prospect of upcoming finals.

Meanwhile, basketball season started off with a bang as the Redcoats embarked on their usual winning streak, and fans supported them with all the spirit they could muster. The Junior class also sponsored a terrific Christmas dance which was casual/singles, a theme which was the choice of a student body vote.

Before they had a chance to recuperate from New Years, the student body was welcomed back to school from an eventful vacation. With their New Year's resolutions in mind, students put themselves in a positive frame of mind as they faced a new and challenging semester.

Can anyone think of anything better to do in the dead of winter than go skiing? That's what a group of Ski Club members had in mind as they embarked on the annual ski trip to Purgatory, Colorado. The group went by buses and vans and spent three days hitting the slopes. Despite a number of transportation conflicts, the trip was a tremendous success and everyone had a great time.

This year's Sweetheart activities took a new turn with the onset of a brand new tradition. Due to the basketball game against arch-rival Bourgade that was scheduled during Sweetheart week, Student Council decided to plan something special.

The Sweetheart activities were to take on the format of Homecoming, with a fun-filled spirit week preceding the night of the game and dance. All week long, each class decked out the school with posters, decorations, etc. according to a chosen theme on their given day. Each class put forth a lot of pride and effort, but the Juniors edged out the rest as they put on the winning spirit day. On the Friday of the game, the whole school united to show their Redcoats that they're behind them all the way. The conclusion of spirit week was topped off with a Student Council balloon sale and a pep rally.

On the night of the game, the Redcoats showed the Bourgade Eagles what pride was all about. As usual, they played a first-rate game and wrapped it up with a dazzling 81-72 win.

The icing on the cake was the Sweetheart dance held directly after the game. Put on by the Seniors, it was set in a more casual mood as it was a singles dance as opposed to the couples tradition.

The climax of the evening was when the twelve outstanding Juniors nominated anxiously awaited the crowning of the Sweetheart royalty. The candidates for King were: David Bresnahan, James Gourley, Mike Henry, Louis Rodriguez, Dan Smith, and Chuck Wahlheim. The Queen nominees were: Jean Azamie, Angela Ashford, Marty Glenn, Terri Henzerling, Beth Sack, and Marianne Vandenberg. Although it was a difficult choice, Terri Henzerling and Dan Smith were voted by the student body as Sweetheart King and Queen.

Varsity Acquires 254 Total Season Points

The Redcoats started their season by shutting out Apache Junction 21-0. Mark Titus's receiving helped the team in the win.

In the second non-conference game, Gerard went on to beat Tolleson 35-7 with Chris Rawlings leading in defense.

Gerard suffered a close loss to Peoria 21-22 in the third game of the season, although great efforts were made by the defense to hold them.

In the first game of the conference, Gerard went against their rival Gilbert. The Redcoats were unfortunately upset by Gilbert 8-13 while Matt Malenfant put the only points up for Gerard.

Gerard proved the dominant force when they wiped out Corona del Sol 48-14. Great efforts were given by the defense, and Mike Knudsen's 200 yards helped the offense.

The Redcoats went on to shut out Lake Havasu 34-0 with touchdowns galore.

Again Gerard came out with the victory against Globe, with a total offense of 321 yards.

The Redcoats again this year put away the Bourgade Eagles 41-20. Mike Lane's 21 times carrying the ball and Mark Turner's 8 completed passes aided in the win.

The last game of the season for Gerard was against Mingus. Once again Gerard came out ahead 26-7 with great rushing efforts by Steve Schwan and Mike Knudsen totaling 322 yards.

Gerard ended the season with a record of 7-2. The successful season was helped by the strong Redcoat defense and the outstanding running and catching ability of the offense.

1) The Redcoats sing the fight song after a victory. 2) Coach Carroll sends Joe Kroll off with a play.

JV Finds the Formula for Winning

Take equal parts of dedication, skill, perseverance, and a lot of spirit and you'll have the right combination for a successful football season.

The JV team combined a strong offense and a powerful defense, ended the season with 219 points to their opponents' 34 points. The final record was seven wins and one loss.

Pete Schwan was the leading rusher with over 1200 yards in 8 games. The offense was also helped by the efforts of John Verdugo and John Daley.

Defense was anchored by Rocco Lucari, Shawn Finnerty and Larry Zieser.

Coaches Stone, Christensen, and Berges were pleased with the effort and cooperation of the team and are expecting great things from these boys next year.

A great team effort by all involved in the Junior Varsity program was the key to their success.

The following is a list of the players who were on the team during the season. The names are listed in alphabetical order. The first name is the player's name, and the second name is the player's position.

Although the freshman football team wasn't very strong on winning they were strong on what counts, SPIRIT. Throughout the whole season they never gave up.

Their fifth game was the big one against Corona Del Sol and the first victory 22-21. When asked what had happened one frosh replied "We learned to lose."

We did find out that our young new Freshmen weren't doing so well, only about 4 or 5 had played on a team before. After Coach LeBlanc turned that out, they began to shape up. Now that they have a little experience under their belt they're bound to go far.

Team Has An Inspiring Season

The Varsity volleyball team experienced a better season this year as they made the divisional playoffs for the first time, and came in third place during their 1978 fall season. They were awarded nomination to the American Association of High School Athletes.

Sandy Butts, an enthusiastic member and co-captain of the Varsity team, won a place in All State, and Carolyn Karbo, also co-captain, and Meg McVey both received honorable mention. Sandy received the Outstanding Offensive Player Award, and Carolyn the Outstanding Defensive Player Award.

Barb Savage was the captain for the Junior Varsity team, and Denise Calcagno was chosen the Best Player. This team is more of a "warm-up" team that holds its games just before the Varsity team plays. They are enthusiastic and proud of their team.

Varsity Ends Season With 14 wins

With only four letterman from last year's squad position the 1978-79 Redcoat Basketball Team looked young and lacking the needed experience

After four weeks of pre-season conditioning the Roundballers were prepared to face their beginning exhibition play

They proved to be a very strong and unified squad consisting of 5

seniors, 6 juniors, and 2 sophomores as they went 7-2 in pre-season action to prepare them for conference play

The Redcoats participated in the Globe Christmas Tournament and went 1-2. Returning from that the Redcoats faced tough conference competition. But the young team built up a strong club staying at the top of the conference rating throughout the season

Improvement: Key to J.V. Season

Improvement and pride glistened as the 78-79 J.V. basketball team faced its opponents. Coach Stone instilled a good attitude and confidence in his players.

The team started with a first game loss over Peoria but rebounded to a win over Dysart in pre-season action. The games proved to be exciting and the guys showed a lot of spirit.

J.V. year always proves to be a learning year and this season gave the roundballers the needed experience in hopes of building a strong Varsity team next year.

Coach has Winning Team for his First Season

The determined Freshmen showed a willingness to work for unity as the young players developed their skills.

Defensively and offensively the team showed great improvement throughout the year. Coach Berges has the team working hard each day after school in hopes of building towards a winning season.

The young team started with a hot winning streak which carried them through the season to be one of the best Freshmen teams ever at Gerard.

This was the first season that Mr. Berges coached basketball.

Girls Show Skill on the Court.

Gerard is certainly proud of the girls basketball teams this year. The players devoted many of their after school hours to basketball practice, and have a good record to show for it.

Mr. LeBlanc coached the J.V. and Varsity teams. As he stated, "Give your best to become your best." The girls have certainly lived up to that statement, as they were very enthusiastic and worked hard this season. They represented Gerard well.

Cross Country Sprints to a 2-5 Record

David Edgeworth, Chuck Fleming, Rob Mitchell, John Suriano, and Tim Sullivan comprised the Cross Country team this year led by coaches Steve Janusz and Jeff Keck

Cross Country finished off the season with a 2-5 record, beating cross town rival Bourgade. Two outstanding team members were John Suriano, who made it in the top half at State, and Tim Sullivan, who made it to fourth place in divisionals

All team members will be returning to Cross Country next year with the exception of graduate Chuck Fleming.

"In Wrestling Excellence is Attained

The 1978-79 wrestling team did an exceptional job this year. The team started out with 19 members and eventually ended up with 13. That just goes to show that it takes a lot of hard work and determination to endure the strain which the Redcoat wrestlers do.

The practices are very hard on the guys, but it helps in preparing them for the challenges they face against their opponents. A favorite saying of wrestling coach Mark Christensen is, "If you have to think about it, you're too slow." Wrestlers must be quick as well as smart if they are going to be successful.

1) Oh the trials of being a wrestler's parent. 2) During each match a group effort is exhibited, shown here by Coach Zang, Steve Tollman and Jim Spets. 3) The Redcoat Wrestlers stretch out before and after each match. 4) Mike Lane and Steve Tollman wait anxiously for each of their matches to begin. 5) Dear Bob, your speed and agility was just too much for our photographer and this is the only time we could capture you on film. 6) During a time out, Coach Christensen and Matt Malenfant discuss strategy. 7) During a break at the Coolidge Invationals, the wrestlers relax and enjoy the food prepared by the Matmaids. 8) The referee holds Mike Lane's hand high in victory. 9) Coach Christensen is pleased with the events of the day during an important invitational. 10) Kelly McShane adds another victory to his winning record. 11) With agility and style, Matt Malenfant halts his Gilbert opponent from a fast escape. 12) Being a wrestler is a tiring job, right Dave?

Through Sacrifice,
Discipline, Duty

And Perseverance!"

There are two Scholars on the wrestling team this year. Matt Mahan and Kelly McStane. Both wrestlers have done four jobs this year placing in many tournaments.

1) Mike Lane aggressively takes control of his opponent 2) Walter Sikora patiently waits to discuss a recent match with Coach Dave Zang 3) Matt Malenfant tries another of his techniques learned over his four years as a wrestler 4) Taking control of his Globe grappler, Kelly McShane strives to turn him over for a near fall 5) John Vehr appears to be in a tense situation 6) Seniors Kelly McShane and Matt Malenfant have served four years on the Redcoat wrestling team 7) Larry Zieser fights to break away from his opponent 8) The Gilbert wrestlers look on worriedly as Steve Grady works on pinning their team mate 9) Mike Lane, Kelly McShane and Coach Chris-
 10) Successfully pinning his man, Dave Gilb adds six points to the team score 11) Larry Zieser concentrates on his next match 12) Matt Malenfant has placed in many tournaments during the season, here he receives a second place medal at the Coolidge Invitational 13) Tony Mack listens intently as the referee explains his call

Even before the season of wrestling began, the Matmaid cheerline was forming to promote the team. After a week of preparation, the group was chosen. Ten girls were picked to represent Gerard.

Each girl has many responsibilities. They are much the same duties as their counter-parts for football and basketball. Cheers are practiced, posters are made, money making projects and special treats are planned for each wrestler. Also many times the girls are called upon to keep score and time for a match. Karen Vandenberg was a big help in keeping the records straight for Coach Christensen.

Miss Terri Savarese was the moderator for the line this year. She spent a lot of time to aid the girls in a very successful season.

A majority of the girls on the line are Seniors and will be leaving this year—the rest are Sophomores. This gives them a great head start for next year!

1) Working together as Captain and Co-Captain of the Matmaid line are Margie Kirch (four year veteran) and Mary Briehl (first year Matmaid.) 2) The Senior girls who were on the line this year are Margie Kirch, Katie Millstone, Mary Briehl, Anne Ryan, and Jeannette Locksiter. 3) Keren Vandenberg (right) was a great help for Coach Christensen this year acting as the team score keeper. Margie Kirch assisted by keeping time. 4) It takes a lot of time and effort to perfect the cheers. 5) Katie Millstone and Margie Kirch put the finishing touches on one of the many signs displayed at each match. 6) Discussion and cooperation play a big part in getting along. 7) This is Ann Knudsen's first year on the line and she shows promise. 8) Miss Terry Savarese was a great aid to the Matmaids as a sponsor. 9) Katy Teney, Anne Ryan, Theresa Ajamie and Jeannette Locksiter take time out from cleaning up to pose.

1) Team members discuss baseball matters in the dugout. 2) Baseball players "take five" during practice. 3) Mike Henry and Tony Winn show their baseball form. 4) Jan White and Nancy Richardson practice their pitching. 5) Debbie Jay makes a perfect pitch. 6) Ann Knudsen makes a successful leap over a hurdle. 7) Lambering up and stretching. 8) Jenny Ross. 9) Warming up in Ann Knudsen and Peggy Stevens. 10) Tony McAward skillfully flies over the bar. 11) Tom Kirkegaard watches George Chasse do his thing.

Baseball, Softball, and Track Are Off To A Good Start!

This is the fourth year that Mr. Stone is head coach in baseball. He says that this year's team is young, but has a chance of becoming a solid team as the season progresses.

"The advantage of this year's team," he continued, "is that they have a good attitude, good team speed and, hopefully, good team defense."

Stone said, however, that the one team weakness is lack of experience, which will be overcome in this upcoming season.

Mr. Bucy is coach for the girls' softball team for his second year. He says that this year's players show a lot of hustle on the field.

Student teacher Susie Calderon, who is on scholarship for pitching softball at A.S.U., is assistant coach for this year's team.

All in all, the softball team expects a good season. Says Coach Bucy, "The girls show a lot of enthusiasm ... unto it's time to run laps."

Mr. Keck has been working with track for three years, the first year as an assistant coach, and the last two years as head coach.

Coach Keck anticipates a good season, and has noticed special talent in some of the track participants; for example, Tom Kirkegaard in the pole vault, Pete Schwan in the high hurdle and Chris Radcliffe in the high jump.

Mr. Keck also states that this year's girls' 440 relay team is promising. The track team is also fortunate to have Jenny Ross, who was a state medalist two years ago.

A welcome addition to our fine athletic department this past year has been Gerard's very first gymnastic team.

Comprised primarily of freshman girls, the team is sponsored by Miss Murphy. The team had been hard at work undergoing their pre-season training in preparation for their first, and hopefully successful season.

The team is led by Head Coach Paul Viette. Mr. Viette had been a gymnastics competitor for seven years and had taught high school gymnastics in New York before coming to Gerard. His present goal is "to establish a successful team here at Gerard."

One successful team member was freshman Carole Bresnahan, who won the freshman division in the All Around Gymnastics Invitational held at Scottsdale High School.

The team is indeed a valuable asset to Gerard's first-rate athletic department. We have high hopes for each of these talented and hard-working girls.

1) Drina Tarrago executes the preliminaries for a tumbling. 2) Drina Tarrago does an ariel in perfect precision. 3) Anne Krell demonstrates her skill on the uneven bars. 4) Coach Paul Viette spots Cheryl Vandenberg as she prepares to do a move. 5) Team members Peggy Vehr, Anne Krell, Sara Kelly, Drina Tarrago, and Marcy Reichenberger wait patiently in line as Karen Orphanos and Peggy Espinoza take their turns. 6) Drina Tarrago, Anne Krell, Lori Chavarria, and Peggy Nash give Kari Krzyzanowski a helping hand as she attempts to do a turn over on the uneven bars. 7) Team members Carol Bresnahan, Cheryl Vandenberg, Lori Chavarria, Karen Orphanos, Peggy Espinoza, and Anne Krell wait for instructions on their uneven bar practice. 8) The girls struggle to set up equipment before practice. 9) Marcy Reichenberger, Mary Mancher, and Kari Krzyzanowski take a breather during practice.

New Gymnastics Team Springs Into Action

Spirit Leaders Percolate the Fans

Spirit, pride and unity could describe the qualities of the 1978-79 varsity cheer line. Mentally and physically the girls worked together to become close and understanding of each other.

The summer started off early as they perfected the cheers that were to be performed at pom and cheer camp in Thatcher, Arizona. At camp they also learned new cheers, chants and spirit raising ideas, and engaged in group rap sessions that helped each squad become closer. Gerard brought back many blue ribbons and enthusiastically won the spirit award.

An important part of working with any group is getting along with the other members. The girls worked to get to know each other better by having group talks which gave everyone the chance to settle any differences. Once everyone had finished crying, practice could resume.

A new thing this year that helped the cheer line out was having all the girls take advanced P.E. seventh period. This allowed more time for practice, poster-painting, work or other school activities.

The cheer line also participated in a study of the abuse of vocal chords during cheerleading. The study took place at Arizona State University.

A great help to the pom and cheer was their moderator Mrs. Dertina. She attended camp with them and oversaw all their activities.

Captain Mary Ann Gallagher expressed this, "Our cheer line is very close. Everybody is funny in their own little way. We are a very emotional group; we love to cry! One of our good qualities is we all really like each other—all eight of us. We started out as eight individual cheerleaders but we ended up as a team."

Pom Girls Highlight Halftime Wait

It's halftime already and the crowd murmured in excitement as the 1978-79 pom line set the stage to perform a well practiced pom routine. Whether on a football field or a basketball court, the line was prepared to entertain the Redcoat fans and boost their school spirit.

'I'm really proud of our pom line. I think they've done an excellent job and deserve a lot of credit,' said captain Fritz Hochreiter.

The Gerard pom line attended pom and cheer camp in Thatcher, Arizona and finished with a coveted award given to the top five pom lines at the camp.

More than ever 1978-79 was filled with bumps and bruises as the girls revealed throughout their routines. Many routines were performed to popular top-ten songs.

JV Girls Display Spirit and Pride

The JV Pom and Cheer lines practice almost year-round. The try outs are in early April. The girls practice every week-day during the summer preparing for camp. Football season and basketball season keep the girls practicing every day until mid-March and then its time for try-outs again

This much practicing takes a lot of dedication and cooperation on the part of each and every girl on the line

Drina Tarrago, JV Cheer Captain, states, "We really learn a lot about each other, and become really good friends."

"It's not easy working with the same people every day for an entire year, but we learned to work together and we all found out that 'giving in a little' can mean a lot," said JV pom girl Lorri Insalaco

Hard work and unity has paid off for these girls. At camp, the girls took many of the outstanding honors, both as individuals and as lines. Camp is one week of learning new routines and cheers as well as spirit raising ideas. The girls are almost constantly working from 7 am to 9 pm

"Camp is a lot of work, but it's sure worth it. We go up as 8 different people, but we come back a line," said Marian Castle, member of JV Pom, "and the line unity and individual friendships that are made at camp last for the rest of the year, and even longer," added Tessie Daley, JV Cheerleader

Frosh Cheer Leads on Rowdy Class

Freshman cheer tryouts are held the first two weeks of school. Six girls are chosen out of the twenty-eight that try out. During the year the girls are called upon to promote spirit for the Freshman class. They spend a lot of time painting posters, practicing cheers and planning spirit boosters. The girls are an important part of the Freshman class. They must be chosen with great care because they will represent the school and their team. This year's captain for the cheer line was Maria Clark. All of the girls put in a great effort to make this year's Freshman line a success.

Each year mascots are chosen to represent Gerard. Their main responsibility is to attend each game and cheer for our Redcoats. They must have high spirit and a lot of energy for the job.

1) The Freshman cheerleaders are Ann Krell, Maria Clark, Lori Chavarria, and Cheryl Vandenberg. Not pictured is Mary Moncher. 2) Frosh Cheer leads the fans at a home basketball game. 3) Cheryl Vandenberg is enthusiastic at a home game. 4) Freshman cheerleader Ann Krell cheers on the Frosh guys. 5) Exhibiting her skill at cheer tryouts is Mary Moncher. 6) Maria Clark serves as the captain of the line. 7) This year's varsity Redmont Mascots are Sherie Looney, Shelly Howell, and Cami Corwin. 8) The mascots for our J.V. teams are Michelle Tenczar, Katy Toney, and Peggy Nash. Not pictured are Margie Schwan and Karen Grady. 9) Cheryl Vandenberg smiling for the judges at the Freshman cheer tryouts.

The main function of Student Council is to provide learning experiences for the students. They also encourage communication throughout the school. The members of the Student Council must act like a news media while promoting school activities.

A new project this year was holding Student Council workshops within 5 Diocesan High Schools. The first workshop was held at Bourgade, and attended by Executive Student Council members. There they exchanged ideas and discussed the problems of each school.

Patty Gallagher was one of the students that attended the Arcadia Congress. She stated, "It was great. I learned not only new techniques about Student Council, but also how to get along with others."

With the activity card money, they organize assemblies that entertain the students. The Student Council sponsors the St. Mary's Food Bank drive and the Thanksgiving picnic. They give a prize to the best float at Homecoming, and promote school dances.

Unionjack Informs and Entertains

The Unionjack's main goal is to keep the students informed about what is happening in and around their school. Staff members are all included in the Journalism class which benefits the young writers in learning more about style, technique, and creativity. Moderator, Miss Kocher, keeps things in line, and helps the students expand their knowledge in the Journalism Department.

The Making of the Unionjack

1) This year the Unionjack had credit editors. Jackie Quinn helps Valerie Nyiri type up an article. 2) Moderator of the Unionjack, Miss Ketchum helps students with their assignments in the 7th hour Journalism class. 3) Margie Kirch signs herself up for an article in an upcoming edition of the Unionjack. 4) Cecilia Parker consults Diane McGuire, while Joe Larkin, Joe Paliqfita, Margie Kirch, and James Haver complete their stories. 5) Joe Paliqfita, John Pinnick and Lori Geyer work hard on their weekly assignments. 6) James Haver discusses his thoughts while Steve Purcell proofreads his article.

If you have been to even just one home football or basketball game you will have heard Mr. Bucu and the band. Oh yes, they too have that Gerard spirit. Of course, it comes out differently but bands will do that sometimes

As most of you know this is Mr. Bucu's second year at Gerard. In that time the chorus has grown from four to seventeen members and the band has gotten new uniforms

Three students from the Redcoat band, Charlie Fleming, Dean Schwach and David Peloso marched in the Fiesta Bowl Band and Parade this year

The Music Department has come up with some unusual ways to make money this year. A few of these ways are for example; the Haunted House and the frisbee sale

And always remember: A song from the heart beats the devil every time!

Involvement In Clubs Shows Redcoat Pride

Active students devoted much of their time and energy to two exciting campus service clubs:

The Pep Club was revived this year and got off to a good start. They helped pom and cheer set up pep rallies and attended every game to promote spirit for the school sporting events.

Youth for Life is a corporate organization working against abortion. Their aim is to promote the Pro-Life cause and to ensure an equal opportunity for life to all. Caring students contributed their efforts in saving the unborn and supporting the Pro-Life movement.

Staff Works Hard to Keep Memories

Alive

It took a lot of effort and talent to make this year's Image a first-rate book. Moderated by Mrs. Berges and guided by editor Beulah Ford, the yearbook staff tried to accomplish every duty that goes into producing a yearbook. There were deadlines that needed to be met, pictures that had to be taken and layouts which needed to be drawn up. The yearbook staff had to make many sacrifices which included staying after school each day and coming in on holidays. The yearbook staff this year had the responsibility to produce a book that would represent Gerard and keep memories alive.

1) Working hard at drawing up her final layout is Molly Shocklee. 2) Keeping the files in order was Rob Hulet and working in the dark room was Bruce Birmingham and Rob Mitchell (not pictured Nancy Birmingham). 3) Mary Bruhl (ad manager), cuts up art board in order to prepare the ads, while Wendy Green tries to think up a caption. 4) Yearbook photographers, Tom Wilkinson and Ann Young look over negatives. 5) Cami Corwin checks out the photo file. 6) Tara Springsleen seems to be thinking about something other than yearbook, while Kathy Scholz keeps busy cropping pictures. 7) Katie Millstone, Mrs. Berges and Bridget Ford go over the final pages before sending them into the plant. 8) Correcting the type sheets for their layouts are Brigitte Eides and Trisha Ford. 9) Jacki Kirkpatrick helps Tara Jones write her copy. 10) Trying to organize their pages are Mary Ann Gallagher, Diane Dupuy and Steve Farrell.

Twelve Angry Men? ! ?

The Drama Club had a rather slow start this year. But as soon as former Gerard student Mutt Ottaviano came things began to shape up. The traditional Christmas play was moved to March because of difficulties. "Twelve Angry Men" was chosen.

Although the play is coming along fine the title isn't very appropriate since there are only 3 men in it, but titles can always be changed. Replacing men with women in the play hasn't hurt it in the least, in fact it may even add to it.

Later on the Spring play will be staged by the Drama students.

1) Wendi Green threatens Bruce Birmingham during rehearsal. 2) Dave Gilb, Wendi Green and Nancy Birmingham rehearse a dramatic scene. 3) With a knife in his hand Bruce Birmingham takes over the Drama Club. 4) Backpacking clan hikes up the treacherous hill. 5) Charlie Fleming looks apprehensively at his reptile friend. 6) Joe Watson and Charlie Fleming stand at the entrance to Prescott National Forest. 7) Chris De Prima finds a cozy spot where he can enjoy his lunch. 8) Joe Watson gets in touch with nature.

Backpackers Get Glimpse of Nature

The Backpacking Club of Guernsey is made up of nature-loving students who enjoy going on outings.

The Backpackers had great fun on the Pine Mountain trip last fall. Future trips will be to the Sequoia National Mountains and a five-day trip to Hualapai at Easter.

"Many students have shown an interest in the Backpacking Club this year with underclassmen leading the way. Our spring trip this year goes to Hualapai in the Grand Canyon," says Mr. Guernsey.

Mass Suicide Outside Tuba City

The following is a fictional account of the ski trip to Purgatory. It was written by one of the Ski Club members.

"Forty young Phoenixians and their honorable leaders Jerry Stone and Martha Stevens took their lives in the morning hours after a series of incidents.

Tuba City officials reported the trouble began while heading for Purgatory, Colorado early Saturday morning when one of the buses in the caravan collided with a snow bank, another vehicle got lost and was detained for two hours. The third vehicle was stranded on an icy mountain where several of the travelers occupied themselves constructively.

Other incidents consisted of having to pile out and push the bus up an ice covered hill, being pulled by a snow plow, having the bus bathroom overflow burning out the clutch, getting a flat tire, having the van tip over on its side, and finally the real killer of being stuck in Tuba City for more than five hours, after which they indulged in the poisonous solution.

A suicide note was left to an unidentified "Dr. Vince" and it read as follows: "Hon! Dr. Vince during the luggage check you forgot to see if we had snow chains. We had everything but. We just cannot go on any longer. We have all gone insane from the Nava Hopi Cafe and the Tuba City High School just wasn't our idea of a fun time. See ya soon God will getcha for this."

The so-called "Dr. Vince" has not been located and anybody with a possible clue to this man's identity please contact the bus company. They have offered to take him on a tour of the U.S. at no charge. They claim to have a very reputable bus line for getting people to where they want to go (getting back is another story)."

1) Monday morning Steve Farrell, Peggy Stevens, Joe Larkin and Robert Brescia prepare for the first run of the day. 2) Everyone is transferring their equipment from the bus that broke down in Tuba City to the one that finally got them home. 3) The seniors stranded between Durango and Purgatory sit on the bus trying to amuse themselves for five hours. 4) Still arriving, Gerard students prepare for a cold but exciting day atop Purgatory. 5) Mark Lehman makes a spectacular jump over the "ramp". 6) Mark does a helicopter maneuver (a 360° turn) on his last run of the day. 7) George Chasse follows right behind Mark with his version of the helicopter spin. 8) The landing of Mark Lehman's stunt with George Chasse watching. 9) After an exhausting weekend senior guys look forward to returning home. 10) Ernie Waller and Saxon Pulaski in freshly powdered snow. 11) Cindy Jay, Julie Toner and Melissa Clark relax after a hard day of skiing. 12) John Licorati, John Suriano, Dennis Hanley and Greg Zackowski adjust equipment before continuing down. 13) Mark LeJeune, Angela Ashford, Peggy Stevens, Robert Brescia, Jan Nichols, Cathy Stevens and Terri Henzerling meet before continuing the run. 14) The main chair lift at Purgatory.

NHS Fosters Valuable Qualities

The National Honor Society is indeed just that; it is a national organization which recognizes and honors outstanding students in the areas of character, leadership, scholarship and service.

This year the society has tried to uphold all of these qualities by encouraging the members to keep good grades and become involved in some sort of community or school service. This may be tutoring a younger student or volunteering to work with handicapped children.

Money which the NHS makes through various sales or by selling concessions at the gun show may go to support projects such as a scholarship fund for an incoming Gerard freshman, or used to finance an activity planned by one of the NHS committees.

In order to get members more involved, the club was divided into four committees. The four committees are the social committee, the field-trip committee, the service committee and the special committee. When meetings arise every first Tuesday of the month, members divide up into their committees and plan projects for the whole group.

The Juniors and Seniors who belong to NHS have many rewards. One presentation which they enjoyed was a visit from a Devil's Advocate from Arizona State University who came to speak to those NHS members interested in college life.

The NHS seal has a special meaning to those students who belong to the National Honor Society. They have been inducted into this society because of their character, scholarship, leadership and service. With these qualities being honored and promoted, the members will hold strong values long after they graduate from Gerard.

1) The NHS officers are Mark Dhaenens, Treasurer; Diane Dupuy, Secretary; Tim McAvard, Vice President, and Mary Bruchl, President. 2) The NHS seal signifies the four qualities of a National Honor Society member. 3) Sr. Laurent Nugent donated her extra time as the NHS moderator. 4) Gerard footballs and pennants were sold by the NHS members. 5) NHS members attended meetings every first Tuesday of the month. 6) NHS sponsored a homemade bake sale and senior member Anne Ryan volunteered to work.

Honorary Students Gain Tributes

Many outstanding students are deserving of recognition and honor for their good character and scholastic abilities. Gerard is proud to have these high achievers who represent some of the best qualities a student could have.

Our school seal symbolizes the basics of Gerard. It reflects the pride which we have for ourselves and those around us. The Dove of Peace is a symbol for peace and the Holy Spirit. The fleur de lis is a French emblem representing the French missionary, Monsignor Gerard, for whom our school is named. The lion represents strength and the book it is holding represents knowledge. Together they signify the strength of knowledge. The Latin inscription translates into "It is the spirit that gives life." These are all simple emblems of our school, yet they portray the character geared for all Gerard students.

A high honor and important part of high school life is to be well liked by others. Twelve sweet Juniors were nominated for Sweetheart King and Queen by their class. The whole school then elects the king and queen. This year's King and Queen were Dan Smith and Terri Henzerling.

Senior Kathy Scholz represented Gerard in a scholarship contest sponsored by Gemco. Kathy succeeded as one of the ten finalists in an oral discussion on economics.

Mary Briehl and Diane Dupey were two National Honor Society members who were chosen by the club to apply for a NHS scholarship grant to the college of their choice. The application required their scholastic, leadership and service abilities.

The number one and number two ranked people in each class are also deserving of recognition. Many of these top students are also involved in extra curricular activities.

The Bausch & Lomb award, which goes to the outstanding senior science student was awarded to Dave Dippre. Along with an inscribed medal, Dave received a scholarship application to the University of Rochester in New York where the

What is the DAR Good Citizens Contest? This is a contest sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution, which honors one outstanding senior from each high school. Mike Knudsen was the student selected as the Good Citizen for his qualities of Leadership, Dependability, Service and Patriotism.

Who's Who in America High School Publications honors those students outstanding in the areas of the school newspaper, yearbook and photography.

The Society of Distinguished American High School Students recognizes Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors for their contributions to the school.

SENIORS

Seniors Unite For Last Time

Each year at Gerard brings new and different experiences, and as the class of '79 began again with new classes, new interests and a special closeness that exists among us, we realized it was our last year to be together. Our past experiences led us to see new and better qualities in each other. With our high spirit we met our first goal that was winning our Spirit Day and for the first time, our Homecoming float. With graduation in our minds, we thought of our Senior trip to California, on which we all worked hard through class sales. This spirit of winning prevailed throughout our last year and will be remembered by all.

JUNIORS

Juniors Maintain High Standards

The class of '80 enjoyed a new position they were upperclassmen. Not only did the Juniors receive pleasure from this position, but also responsibility. It was up to them to raise money to put on the Junior Senior Prom towards the end of the year.

Songs class President Dave Smith said "The Junior year is a very busy year because of all the hard classes but it is also a lot of fun. This year has really been a great year."

All in all, Junior year was one to be remembered for the class of 1980.

Juniors had a fun time reaching toward the goals.

INITIATION: A Real Gerard Welcome

See These Freshmen girls posing for a picture at Initiation

Jocelyn Adams
Lisa Adams

The year couldn't have been started off right without Freshmen Initiation. Freshmen united on the eighth day of September in zealous school spirit, and experienced a real Gerard welcome.

The Freshmen officers planned on earning money throughout the year by having bake sales, raffles and car washes as they have had for a number of years. The basic goal behind the fund raising activities was to earn money to put on the Senior Brunch later in the year.

The Freshmen-Senior Get Together was held by the Senior girls in order to give both classes a chance to get acquainted.

SPEND SOME TIME IN THE PAST.

O At the History Center, you'll be fascinated by the faces and events that pioneered the Salt River Valley.

There are tools and artifacts from the mysterious Hohokam; rare photos of early pioneers; even original documents from Teddy Roosevelt's dedication of Roosevelt Dam in 1911.

Come share Arizona's history with us. The History Center is open weekdays from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in the main lobby, East Van Buren Street at Project Drive.

A Very Special Thanks To:

DR. BRANDT

For his help and encouragement throughout the year

DR. SHERIDAN

For checking to see if we were gone before leaving.

FACULTY

For excusing us from unendless hours of class.

OUR FAMILIES

For all of your support.

HERB AND DOROTHY MCLAUGHLIN

For the picture on page 3.

MRS. BERGES

For staying everyday, and helping us a great deal.

MR. HOLLAR

For coming back to school to turn off the burglar alarm after Tina and Bridget set it off

MRS. GILTNER

For all of her emergency drawings.

LYNN WICKMAN

For her special printing.

JOE LARKIN

For writing some terrific articles.

MELISSA CLARK AND PEGGY STEVENS

For your helping hands.

THE GLENN FAMILY AND THE SACK FAMILY

For their helpful donations.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF

For putting together the best yearbook ever.

KAREN LYNCH

For the picture on page 20 and 21, and also some wrestling pictures.

MR. GUEVIN

For his super slides.

DICK DIETRICH

For the theme pictures.

It's hard to believe it,
but the year has ended.
The memories of that little room
are now behind me.
But those are memories that I will remember forever (even though
I do have a short memory).
It feels so strange going home after school instead of upstairs to Yearbook.
I've learned so much from Yearbook, and I'm sure my staff had learned one thing - if not much more, and that is that copy is 37 and caption is 45!!!
I remember wondering where we were ever going to find enough ads to fill the pages, but then I'll never forget the day

I heard we had too many.
Yes, there were times we were all ready to give up.
But something kept us going.
This book might not be All-American, but we've all worked very hard (even on Holidays)
and I know we've done the best job possible.
Now that you hold the finished product in your hands, you can sit back and enjoy it as much as we have.

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're treading
seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and
the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.
Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about,
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace
seems slow -
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than it seems,
To a faint and faltering man,
Often the struggler has given up,
When he might have captured
the victor's cup,
And he learned too late when the night came down
How close he was to the golden crown.
Success is failure turned inside out -
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far,
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit - It's when things seem worst that you must not quit.
